MOTHER PROVIDED FOR IN HIS WILL

Residue of Herndon Estate Will Be Invested.

Cumberland George Herndon, an officer of the United States Navy, by his will, dated August 21, 1902, directed, after disposing of articles of personal estate to a number of relatives, that the residue be invested and $40 a month be paid to his mother, Mrs. Betty C. Herndon; $15 a month to his sister, Mrs. Lizzie H. Rixey; $12 a month to his niece, Georgie Rixey; and $30 a month to Miss Laura Virginia McIlrairie, of Monticello, N. Y.

Upon the death of his mother and sister not less than $500 nor more than $1,000 shall be expended for a memorial window in Mount Pony Baptist Church, Culpepper, Va., in memory of testator's grandfather, Cumberland George, and his wife, and also in memory of testator's father, William A. Herndon, and his mother, Mrs. Betty C. Herndon.

Edward Richard, by his will, filed yesterday, gives to his sister, Thekla Haas, two life-insurance policies for $5,000; to his brother-in-law, Joseph Yechliff, premises 235 Fifteenth street southeast; to his nephews, Alfred, Isaac, and Emanuel Haas, premises 480 Pennsylvania avenue northwest, and also testator's interest in a deed of trust held by Richard & Co. upon real estate belonging to the Cummings estate in Chevy Chase, Md., as well as his interest in the deed of trust chattel held upon business of George W. Coldenstroth.

The will of Charles Blackstone, recorded yesterday, directs that $50 be paid to testator's mother, Mrs. Matilda Blackstone; the same amount to his sister, Mary Blackstone; $1 each to his brothers, John, William, and Oscar Blackstone; to William A. Taylor, of Virginia; all real estate in the county of Fairfax the property of the testator. Taylor is also named as executor.

COMPLAIN AGAINST CHILDREN.

Residents Ask Commissioners to Deny License to Home.

Children at the Bruen Home, 436 M street northwest, persist in getting up early, playing noisily all day, and crying at night, according to the complaint of residents, who yesterday asked the Commissioners to refuse a license to the institution.

Among the callers were L. Cabell Williamson and Dr. William T. Gill, and J. H. Marshall, who acted as attorney for the Bruen Home. Mrs. Julia Burnett, who is secretary of the board of directors, said that if the Commissioners refused to grant a license, the forty children cared for there would be forced to find homes with charitable persons or starve. The decision of the Commissioners will be announced later.

TRIAL SET FOR TO-MORROW.

Sister Agnes and Dr. Murray A. Russell to Face Court.

Prosecutions of Sister Agnes, in charge of St. Ann's Infant Asylum, and Dr. Murray A. Russell, attending physician at the institution, will be made to-morrow or Saturday, according to Police Court officials.

Sister Agnes will be tried for alleged failure to isolate patients from measles, while Dr. Russell is to be arraigned on charge of neglecting to report the cases to the health department.

The defendants, who are represented by Attorneys Hamilton, Colbert, Yerkes and Hamilton, have not been arrested, but warrants were read in the Police Court Monday. An understanding was reached whereby the accused are to appear without the warrants being served.

FIRE CHIEF MADE HAPPY.

Engine and Hose Wagon, Lost in Transit, Arrives in Town.

Fire Chief Wagner is happy. The new combination fire engine and hose wagon has at last arrived in town after being "lost" on the way down from Pittsburgh. It is now at No. 5 engine house, in North Carolina avenue southeast, where Chief Wagner went yesterday to see it. He will order the wagon removed to No. 24 engine house in Petworth.

It was shipped from St. Paul May 2, and when it arrived in Pittsburgh was placed in another car, owing to it bulk. Then it happened that the officials in Washington, who had not been notified of the change, missed it altogether, and there was a merry hunt for it that lasted several days.

PUBLIC PARK ADVOCATED.

Citizens Want District to Buy Columbia Heights Tract.

Headed by their president, Rear Admiral Thomas O. Selfridge, a delegation from the Columbia Heights Citizens' Association yesterday appealed to the Commissioners to purchase and convert into a public park the property belonging to Col. George Truesdell, which is bounded by Columbia road, Kalorama road, Nineteenth and Twentieth streets.

Admiral Selfridge claims a park is much needed in this part of the city. As the suggestion of Commissioner Judson, the citizens will obtain an option on the property, and try to gain the voluntary consent of property owners to pay benefit assessments.

Burned by Boiling Metal.

As a result of an explosion of a pot of boiling metal in the foundry of the navy yard yesterday afternoon Harry C. Carver, forty-seven years old, of 306 East Capitol street, a molder, is lying at the navy yard dispensary suffering with burns on the head, shoulders, and arms. His condition is not serious. A fire alarm was turned in by excited workmen, but no property damage resulted.

An Accidental Death.

A certificate of accidental death was issued yesterday morning by Coroner Nevitt in the case of Mrs. W. Mary Watson, who died of gas poisoning at her home, 15 H street northwest, Tuesday night. The body will be taken to Perryville, Ohio, her former home, for burial as soon as relatives arrive in Washington.

"Palmed" Mattings from China

Most Durable in the World

There is one certain sort of matting above all others in quality and durability because constantly, during the process of weaving, a strong Chinaman stands over the warp and with the palm of his hand forces the weave closer and closer together. This gives a body and a polish that could be given to matting in no other way.

In our stock you will find a rare assortment of these "Palmed" Mattings. Of course, they are among the higher-priced grades, but we recommend them as the most economical purchases.

For a few days we shall offer nearly our entire stock of Mattings at reduced prices, and, no matter what grade you may select, we give our personal guaranty that it shall show a proper amount of wear or we will replace it free.

We are giving you our regular stock—not a collection purchased for the purpose of quoting low prices. None are water damaged or stained from their coverings. There are none which failed to pass inspection and were condemned to be sold as "seconds."

In order to get the best prices there is no need to buy full rolls. We measure your floors, lay the Mattings free, and charge only for what is actually necessary to cover them.

Peter Grogan & Sons Co.

WOMAN DECLARED SANE.

Although declared by physicians at the Washington Asylum Hospital to be of unsound mind, Mrs. Lottie Dunn, fifty-two years old, was yesterday pronounced sane by a jury in the Police Court. Scarcely able to walk from the prisoners' dock to the witness stand, Mrs. Dunn appeared to be a physical and mental wreck, principally through the excessive use of intoxicants, it was said.

She is now serving a six months' term for larceny. Mrs. Dunn was found guilty last December of the theft of a suit from a local department store, and although she pleaded for "one more chance" she was sent to Occoquan. Although her sentence does not expire until June 20, she will be released on May 25 on account of her good behavior.

Rites for Patrick Cannon. Funeral services for Patrick Cannon, produce dealer, who died at his home, 723 Fourth street northwest, will be held this morning at St. Aloysius Church, where mass will be celebrated by Father Noonan. Interment will be in Mount Olivet cemetery.

Will Hear W. C. T. U. Request. The Commissioners have consented to consider the request of the W. C. T. U. that a public drinking fountain be installed at National park. In a request made to the Commissioners yesterday it was said the only relief from thirst in "soft drinks."
